WILL CONFER ON MANDAMUS--STITES

County Tuberculosis Society
Authorizes Action for Hospital.

PICK SEAL CHAIRMEN

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Montgomery County Tuberculosis Society, the society's solicitor, State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, was instructed to bring mandamus proceedings against the county commissioners in an effort to force them to erect the long-planned county tuberculosis society hospital.

No steps have yet been taken, Senator Stites declared yesterday, but a conference to complete plans for action will probably be held in Norristown this week-end.

At the meeting of the executive committee Clayton H. Alderfer quoted Commissioner Stout as saying the commissioners hesitate in going forward with the hospital erection because it has not been decided whether the vote of the people in favor of the movement was legal. Mr. Stout suggested it again be placed before the voters in November saying that then the commissioners would proceed if the majority of voters approved.

Mandamus Approved in June.

Dr. William G. Miller, president of the society, stated the legality of the action had been upheld by the Court and at three Legislature sessions, and that the counsels for the society, both State and county, were firm in their statements the vote was entirely legal.

Dr. Miller said the mandamus proceedings were first approved by the society in June last. The delay in taking the legal action was to give the county commissioners a chance to start the erection of the hospital without legal action.

A motion was passed to appoint Attorney I. P. Knipe, the society's counsel, with Attorney Stites.

The Christmas seal sale was another important subject for discussion at the meeting and Miss M. Chloe Jackson, the new executive secretary, said in surveying the county it was her opinion with a fair amount of effort the goal for this year should be set at $25,000.

Need Hospital.

Twenty communities are represented in the tuberculosis clinic service. On record in the county there are 161 active cases and 465 observations which, it was stated, represents only about one-third of the cases in the county.

"These figures," said Miss Jackson, "show what need there is for the hospital in the county to keep the disease from spreading."

With Miss Nancy P. Highly acting as general advisory chairman of the county with Miss Jackson, for the Christmas seal sale, these community chairmen will serve this year: Bryn Mawr, Mrs. J. E. Caldwell; Cynwyd, Mrs. Walter Witaker.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

League of Women Voters to Meet
Next Week in Norristown.

On Friday, October 30, the Montgomery County League of Women Voters will meet in annual convention at the City Hall, Norristown. The sessions will run from 10.30 to 4 o'clock. As each local league in the county is entitled to a voting delegate for every ten members, and as any one who cares to attend the meetings will be welcome it is known that there will be a large attendance.

Interest in the tax costs survey, which is one of the undertakings of the league this year, is so great that what will be discussed regarding it at the county convention is eagerly awaited.

Other matters of special interest to the women of the county will be developed in talks to be made by the opposing candidates for the office of Director of the Poor, and by Mrs. F. Louis Slade, President of the New York League of Women Voters. Miss Gertrude Ely, Chairman of the County League, will preside. A luncheon will be served by the League of Norristown.

Progress of Women's Community Club Stressed at Annual Luncheon

Many Clubs Represented at Tenth Birthday—Past Presidents Outline
History of Local Club.

You know how every child loves a birthday party. So do the grown-up children of the Woman's Community Club if the large attendance at its tenth birthday luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday, October 20, be of any significance.

After an informal reception in the library some 130 guests sat down to a delicious luncheon brought from the Central Building of the Y. M. C. A. of Philadelphia and served under the direction of the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. A. Y. Reinking, chairman, with the assistance of Miss Julia Beck, manager of the cafeterias of the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. The menu will make the absent ones regretful:

FRUIT PUNCH
CONSOMME ROYAL
CHICKEN PARTY
HEARTS OF LEPIDICE
THOUSAND ISLANDS DRESSING
ROLLS AND BUTTER
FRENCH PASTRY

At the end, the president, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, after a few words of greeting, but the three-decker birthday cake which held a conspicuous position in the middle of the room. The awkward moments of transition were filled by collective singing accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Shaw. The club was introduced to the new Montgomery County Federation song by Mrs. L. H. Trotter, accompanied by the composer of the music thereof, Miss Gertrude Ross, one of the Narberth Juniors.

Mrs. Jacobs then read the roll of guests from other clubs. Representatives from the following clubs were present: Colony Club of Ambler, Woman's Club of Ardmore, Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd, Woman's Club of Bryn Mawr, Woman's Club of Downingtown, Woman's Club of Glenside, Llanerch Women's Club, Monday Afternoon Club of Malvern, Woman's Club of Media, New Century Club of Newtown, Woman's Club of Norristown, Woman's Club of Royersford, New Century Club of West Chester, Neighbor Club of Hatboro, Woman's Club of Germantown, Hathaway Shakespeare Club, Modern Club of Philadelphia, Woman's Club of Lansdowne.

Most interesting was the history of the Community Club serially told by its presidents. Mrs. Cameron's letter, read by Mrs. J. S. Donnelly, told of the early Community Club, an adjunct of the Y. M. C. A., whose functions were largely social, of her success, in spite of opposition, in electing an efficient group of officers and in federating with other women's clubs of the State. Mrs. Fowler reported chiefly participation in wartime activities, the most spectacular of which seemed to be the organization of the Liberty Loan campaigns. With these went a constant growth in size and maturity. The first reciprocity luncheon, the first published by laws and the first Christmas baskets for shut-ins came in this period. Mrs. E. C. Batchelor could say that in 1920-

JUDGE SOLLY REDUCES FERGUSON'S SENTENCE

Narberth Man Released After Month for Operation of Still.

When Thomas Ferguson, of Narberth, took home some mysterious packages one evening and went down the cellar his wife became suspicious.

Investigating, she found her husband had set up a still and she became angry.

She summoned police and took them down to the cellar to get a glimpse of the still. They arrested Ferguson. He pleaded guilty to making liquor and was sentenced to three months by Judge Solly and to payment of a $100 fine and costs.

That was a month ago.

Meantime, there was no one to provide for Mrs. Ferguson and two young children; interest on a first and a second mortgage on their home and taxes became due and there was no money in the family exchequer to pay.

J. Herbert Egan presented a petition to Court and Judge Solly today granted reduction of the prison sentence from three months to one month, authorizing Ferguson's release today.

NARBERTH'S SUBURBS

Want Township to Pave Streets to Borough Standards.

The sight of miles of new paving in the borough has brought sharply to the attention of Lower Merion Township taxpayers living near Narberth the condition of their own thoroughfares.

A delegation of sixteen residents from Cleveland and Schiller avenues, on Montgomery avenue, opposite Narberth, appeared Wednesday night before the Township Board of Commissioners to protest the condition of township highways in their district.

Through Harry C. Banks, who acted as spokesman for them, they offered to put in sidewalks and curbs at their own expense if the township would improve the streets in their vicinity, which they declared to be in sad need of repair.

Chairman Frank Floyd, of the Highway Committee, said that no money was available for immediate work but it was decided that a meeting of the Highway Committee would be held shortly in order to give the protestors an opportunity to present a detailed petition of the improvements they desired.

These streets are in the General Wayne district, where James T. Stretch is Commissioner and political leader.

FORTY-TWO FROM HERE ARE DRAWN FOR JURY SERVICE

Thirty-six residents of Lower Merion and six of Narberth are among the 328 jurors who were drawn last week in Norristown to serve during the November sessions of Court. Of the 328 jurors, 24 will serve on the Grand Jury, 160 on criminal juries and 160 on Traverse Jury.

The following persons have been drawn to serve during two weeks of criminal Court, and two weeks of civil Court, commencing Monday, November 9:

Grand Jury—Henrietta Ingle and Albert L. Reinhold, of Lower Merion.

Criminal Court, week of November 9—Nancy Agnew, Peter Brown, James Burgess, Elwood L. Duer, Emma Frorer, William H. Mulvaney, Howard S. Rue and Frederick Stanger, all of Lower Merion; Ralph Beatty and Walter Weaver, of Narberth.

Criminal Court, week of November 16—James R. Cronin, James Ellis, Samuel R. Markle, Nicholas Murphy, Jane Magee, William Mallon, Mark McNally, Sr., Luverne Osmond, Harry W. Rohrer, Clara Sonneberg and Mary F. Seidel from Lower Merion; James F. Purce, Narberth.

Civil Court, November 23—John Breen, Matthew Callaghan, James Higgins, Edward Kelley, Charles S. Loud, John Morris, W. S. McKinney, John R. McClatchy, Florence McNeely, Wesley J. Ohl and Helen Wright, Lower Merion; Robert I. Fretz and Robert A. Warner, Narberth.

Civil Court, week of November 30—Garretson L. Bunton, Martin Geary, Mary Kohn, Mary Pearce and Charles L. Roach, of Lower Merion; Elsie B. Stalker, Narberth.

MUSICAL SOON

A musical of real worth will be given by Mr. Snyder, Director of Music in the Lutheran Church of Narberth, on November 6, Friday, at 8 P. M. Mr. Snyder is a most capable musician and will have a professional accompanist. It will be a rare treat. A silver offering is asked, which will be for the church. Let the room be filled and the music will be enjoyed.

NEW PHYSICIAN

Dr. C. M. Weber, a graduate of Jefferson Medical College, has taken his residence in Narberth.

He is living at 120 Woodside avenue, from which address he has opened a general practice.

NEGLECTED TO CANCEL THIS GAME, L. MERION

Ed. Note.—The foregoing is the sportsman-like comment of the Norristown papers on Lower Merion's defeat Saturday. It should interest Maroon and White followers:

"Defeat, sour and sorrow, visited Lower Merion High School Saturday afternoon when Wilmington High blocked a kick after a touchdown and trimmed the Main Liners, 7 to 6. The game was the first real test given Al Adams' team and they failed to measure up. In fact Wilmington is one of the few teams of real calibre the Main Liners have met in recent years."

"Claims that it was the first Lower Merion defeat since 1921 are somewhat funny since it will be remembered that the Lower Merion Alumni defeated the school in a post-season tilt two years ago."

L. M. H. S. RECORD IS BROKEN AT 30

Costly Fumbles and Bad Kick
Costs Eleven Its 30th Victory.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTS

For the first time in three and a half seasons and on the eve of 30 consecutive victories, the Lower Merion High gridiron team was defeated Saturday. It fell a victim to Wilmington High by a 7-to-6 score.

The score tells a tale for itself of the battle fought and although the Wilmington team triumphed the Ardmore combination proved itself the stronger team, both on offensive and defensive plays. The visitors came through with six first downs to the home team's 14. Wilmington had a beautiful aerial attack which was unleashed in the second half, but it made no difference as scoring matters are concerned.

Before two minutes of play the big Wilmington team recovered a costly fumble, due to a bad pass from centre on the Merionite's five-yard line and after four downs succeeded in scoring. It followed this up by placing a one pointer fairly between the posts.

Fumbles Loses Chance.

After Wilmington's touchdown the Maroon and White team fought down the field in a hasty collection of end runs and off-tackle plays and succeeded in placing the leather over Wilmington's goal in the second quarter, but it missed the extra point with a bad drop kick.

The ball was again fought over by the two teams in the remaining minutes.

FIRST REHEARSAL

Thirty-five Members at Main Line
Choral Monday.

The Main Line Choral held its first rehearsal last Monday evening at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Mr. Albert P. Bentz.

A short business meeting was held, in which reports were read showing a flourishing condition in both membership and finance carrying over from last season a substantial balance.

The new season started off with 35 members, representing different towns along the Main Line and also extending off the Main Line to Lansdowne, etc.

Most everybody, in most every community, loves to sing. A membership in the Main Line Choral is an opportunity to spend a profitable as well as an enjoyable evening once a week throughout the winter. Anyone who likes to sing is welcome.

Rehearsals will be held every Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Montgomery avenue and Mill Creek road, Ardmore, Pa.

RUMMAGE SALE

The King's Daughters of Narberth will hold a rummage sale on October 30 at the corner of East Spring avenue and Simpson Road, Ardmore.

Donations of clothing or household goods may be sent to Mrs. Darlington, 232 Hampden avenue, on or before Wednesday, October 28.

If you want your donations called for please call Mrs. Darlington, Tel. 1652 W. before the 28th.

SCOUTS TO HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

Troops of Delaware-Montgomery Will Gather in City for Event.

TO ANNOUNCE HONORS

The annual reunion of Delaware and Montgomery County Scouts will take place in Philadelphia tomorrow, October 24. The centre of activities during the morning will be in the Central Branch, Y. M. C. A., on Arch street opposite the plaza.

From this point excursions will be conducted to various places of interest, historically or otherwise, throughout the city. Among these will probably be Independence Hall, Carpenters' Hall, Betsy Ross House, City Hall, Commercial Museum, Zoological Gardens and the Bulletin Building. One of the most interesting trips will be a tour of the port in a police boat. Throughout the morning the swimming pool in the Y. M. C. A. will be open to the Scouts.

The afternoon program, consisting chiefly of entertainment and the awarding of prizes and trophies won at Camp Delmont during the past season, will take place in the Academy of Music, Broad and Locust streets, beginning at 2 P. M. Several well-known entertainers, speakers and Scout officials will be present.

The public, particularly relatives and friends of the Main Line Boy Scouts, are invited to attend the afternoon program. Tickets for this affair may be secured from any Scout for 25 cents.

HALLOWE'EN PARADE TO END DRIVE

Winners of Prizes to Be Announced
Next Friday.

A Hallowe'en procession of unusual size and beauty has been arranged as the concluding feature of the Buy-it-in-Ardmore Treasure Chest celebration.

The parade itself is open only to the young folks, eighteen years being the age limit. It is expected, however, that a large throng of grown-ups, many in costume, will be on hand to watch the colorful pageant and to enjoy the music to be heard on Lancaster avenue through the entire evening.

There will be first and second prizes for couples in fancy dress for couples in comic costume; for the most original costumes; for the school having the largest number of paraders in line; for comic school groups; for children's decorated floats, and many other special prizes to be announced later.

Because of the size of this year's parade, an early start is planned. The maskers will assemble on Ardmore avenue at 7 P. M. sharp, and will proceed south to Spring avenue, to Simpson avenue, to Athens avenue, thence to Cricket avenue, where they will disband. Residents along the route of the procession are requested to decorate and illuminate their homes for the occasion.

Every boy and girl in the Main Line section, up to eighteen years of age, is invited to take part in the parade and try for the prizes. Every adult is invited to come out and have an evening's pleasure viewing the antics of the young folks.

THE CLIPPING PARTY

As announced last week, a clipping party will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church during the evening of October 29, 1925, in the basement of the church building, located at Narberth and Woodbine avenues.

It is intended to make this one of those old-time affairs, in which are given opportunities to renew old acquaintances and friendships, to make new ones, all the while the sale of "surprise" packages goes on. Come and rejoice with those who happen to choose what turns out to be a decided bargain; laugh with those who select certain other packages. No fear, however, that you may not receive your money's worth—that's a certainty.

Packages will be arranged so that those suitable for the children will not be confused with those for the older folks; candy, ice cream and cake will also be on sale.

Come, bring your friends, have a good time, incidentally helping a good work.

MANY FROM HERE AT YALE CONTEST

Over 100 Followers of the Red and Blue at New Haven
Last Saturday.

CROWELL WAS REFEREE

Narberth figured prominently in Penn's spectacular victory over Yale at New Haven last Saturday. Not only did over a hundred local followers of the Red and Blue journey to the elm city, but Narberth men were at the heart of things in the contest.

By train and auto the borough contingent journeyed to the big bowl. Several large parties made the trip and many individuals and couples traveled alone. The ubiquitous reporter of "Our Town," wandering among the 60,000 at the contest, saw many familiar faces. Undoubtedly as many more were missed. Those reported as having attended the game are:

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Horace T. Smedley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Dunne, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shand, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Town, Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Witmer G. Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Schmidheiser, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Town, Mr. and Mrs. W. Locksley Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. John Weigel, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woehling, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alonzo Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Cozens, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crane, Dr. H. F. McDuffee, Dr. C. T. Faries and son Jack, and Messrs. A. Perry Redifer, William Fretz, William H. Durbin, Walter Sawyer, A. H. Sexton, Walter A. Fox, Thomas A. Kerrigan, Jr., John A. Mowrer, Jr., Fred M. Plantholt, Winthrop Derby, Willard Bowman, W. J. Odiorne and Robert Gilfillan.

But the large list of spectators was not the point by which Narberth gained its peculiar honors Saturday. The Penn coach, Lou Young, is a resident of Grove Place. His young son was mascot of the Penn team. The University graduate manager of athletics, who supervises the general activities of the football team as part of his duties is Ernest B. Cozens, of Grayling avenue.

The spectacular match Saturday was refereed by none other than Wilmer G. Crowell, manager of the victorious ball team and famous in days gone by as Swarthmore's great drop-kicker. As if that were not enough of a finger in the pie for the borough, Bill Durbin was slated to act as linesman, but was unable to arrive in time.

Thus do we settle back in the Morris chair and challenge the city of Philadelphia to beat that record!

CHILD IS KILLED

Elizabeth Lees, five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon G. Lees, of Narberth avenue, was killed, and Mrs. Lees seriously injured in an accident last Sunday night.

Their car, driven by Mr. Lees, struck an inter-urban bus on West Chester pike, near Highland road, and the child, thrown from the car, was killed instantly. Mrs. Lees is in the hospital in a critical condition. Her husband escaped serious injury.

Charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, Mr. Lees was held in $5000 bail. The child's funeral was held Wednesday.

PENN CHARTER

Is a great Prep. School. That is undoubtedly true, and it necessarily follows that it must maintain a faculty par excellence. We are proud to count among our numbers, Donald E. MacCormick, a professor in that school, and a leader of men as well as of boys. Come out and root for Penn Charter. Hear MacCormick teach the lesson tomorrow to the Gara Men's Class at the Narberth Presbyterian Church, 9.30 in the morning. Windsor avenue between Grayling and Hampden.

PROTESTS ILLEGAL PARKING
To the Editor of "Our Town":

On Monday afternoon arrivals by the later trains found their path to the Post Office blocked by a solid row of automobiles, despite the presence of the non-parking sign. It required a detour around three or four cars before a passage was found to the sidewalk. On the way home I interviewed two policemen; one was off duty and going home, the other thought the offending car or cars would be out of the way before he arrived.

COMMISSION ADVISES

That Bus Case Be Re-opened, Yet
No Decision Has Been Given.

A letter was received by Secretary George C. Anderson, of the Lower Merion Commission, last week from the Public Service Commission at Harrisburg suggesting that Lower Merion and individual citizens of the township who objected to the route which the Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company plans to run down Wynnewood road through Merion and Wynnewood, petition the Commission to re-open hearings on the application.

This would indicate that a decision on the application has been rendered, but neither Narberth nor Lower Merion have yet been informed of one.

Both Merion and Wynnewood have been up in arms against the proposed route ever since they learned of it and they have been bombarding both the Public Service Commission and their representatives on the Lower Merion Commission with letters of protest.

Hi-Y Meeting.

Last Thursday evening, the fifteenth, the Hi-Y Club held its second meeting of the season in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. banquet hall. More than 40 of its members were present and two able speakers furnished interesting speeches after the dinner.

The first speaker of the evening was Principal C. B. Pennypacker who stressed the social standpoint of the Hi-Y Club at the school and the various classes and types of boys in it. He suggested that the faculty be allowed to nominate candidates for membership and then submit the nominated candidates to the final election by the members of the club. His suggestion will be carried out probably.

The second speaker was Captain MacDonald, of the Pennsylvania relay team, Olympic runner and member of the Penn team which ran against Oxford and Cambridge early last spring in England.

The first part of his talk was taken up by personal experiences on various track meets all over the country and the particularly interesting experiences he had while in England last spring. He concluded with some of the training rules recognized by leading coaches for track athletes.

MRS. PINCHOT TO TALK

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Lower Merion Township League of Women Voters, which will be held at the Merion Tribute House, Hazelhurst avenue, Merion, on November 4.

The meeting will be preceded by a buffet luncheon, and Mrs. Pinchot, with Miss Sydney Evans, chairman of the Township League; Mrs. William M. Gehmann, Jr., and Miss Lucy Sutton, vice chairman, will receive the guests.

Miss Elizabeth Roberts, of Swarthmore, formerly of Narberth, entertained the Misses Margaret Robertson and Elizabeth Roberts at the week-end.

WOMAN'S COMMUNITY CLUB
CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

22 the Community Library was started, the Junior Club organized, the chorus perfected and the club incorporated. Mrs. A. B. Ross called the years 1922-24 a time of development from earlier organization. Increased membership and attendance brought the need for club classes where smaller groups could work together. She emphasized the extension of welfare work and the beginning of the custom of a community Christmas tree. Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, introduced by the vice president, Mrs. L. C. Douglass, brought as her contributions the transfer of the library to a separate organization and the valuable experience gained in taking charge of the whole Y. M. C. A. Building last year.

Turning from the past, Mrs. H. S. Barker, State chairman of Juniors, spoke of our future presidents, stressing the value of Junior Clubs as agencies for developing executive qualities in the young women who are to carry on our club work in a few years. A rhymed greeting from Miss Jane Campbell, whimsical as always, was read by Mrs. R. F. Wood. Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, one of the Community Club's foster mothers, complimented the chairmen, past and present, on their success. She combatted the idea that participation in club and civic work interferes with one's home life. On the contrary, she believes that such activities develop the efficiency needed in the maintenance of a home and bring mental broadening most valuable to a mother.

Mrs. J. A. Frick, president of the Southeastern District, gave a brief resume of the recent convention of the State Federation at Wilkes-Barre. She said that each club should really do something for the community, not seek merely the entertainment and education of its own members.

Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, president of Montgomery County Federation and a constant help to the Narberth Club from its infancy, most wittily put the club through a physical examination and pronounced it sound, except, perhaps, for an eye defect shown by the inability to see a club house of its own.

Mrs. Tull, president of the Philomusian Club of Philadelphia, briefly felicitated her hostesses on the accomplishments of the past decade.

The following message was read from Mrs. J. B. Hamme, president of the State Federation: "Please extend greetings from me, and very best wishes for an auspicious beginning to a year of good fellowship in individual and co-operative work."

No account of the afternoon would be complete without mention of Miss Elizabeth Harrison's delightful songs. Nor can one leave unspoken appreciative comments on the beauty of the community room softened by streamers of the club colors and brightened by garland and masses of autumn leaves. For this, for our souvenir notebooks and, indeed, for the luncheon itself thanks are due to the Hospitality Committee, one by one: Mrs. A. V. Reinking, chairman; Mrs. J. E. Burrell, Mrs. Bruce A. Carey, Mrs. Charles Carson, Mrs. Howard Cotter, Mrs. W. W. Deacon, Mrs. I. B. Edgerton, Mrs. Paul H. Egolf, Mrs. J. A. England, Mrs. P. M. Field, Mrs. Daniel Leitch, Mrs. C. A. Peeney, Mrs. Louis Sheneman, Mrs. J. D. Sutherland.

Despite a bad cold, Arden Master, of 222 Essex avenue, enjoyed a trip to Pittsburgh over the past week-end.

"Jimmy" England accompanied his father, James A. England, of Sabine avenue, on a trip through northern Pennsylvania this week.

Dr. R. C. Hoffman is spending the week-end at Sea Isle.

Mrs. Charles H. Shaw, Mrs. Frederic T. VanAuken and Miss Gertrude Ross are attending the luncheon given today at the College Club, Thirteenth and Locust streets, by the Alumnae Association of Mt. Holyoke College, of Philadelphia and vicinity.

BOWLING LEAGUE STARTS

Interchurch Players Elect Officers for New Year.

The Narberth Interchurch Bowling League opened their season on Monday evening, October 19, on the Baptist Church alleys when the Presbyterian Seniors went down to defeat before the Methodist Seniors. The Methodists started out with a bang, C. L. Jenkins rolling 212 in the first game. The last game proved the most exciting, the Methodists winning by four points.

At a meeting held in the Baptist Church recently and attended by representatives from the various churches who are interested in bowling, the League was permanently organized and a constitution and by-laws were adopted. The League is now entering on its fourth year, and it was felt by those interested that its objects could be furthered by an organization. The officers elected were:

President—Paul J. Baughman.
Vice President—Horion Williamson.

Secretary—J. H. Knapp, Jr.
Treasurer—C. C. Mason.

"Cannel Coal is, in my opinion, the best fireplace fuel there is, provided it is burned in a grate. Its blaze is as bright and cheerful as that of wood; it throws out more heat and will burn steadily over a long period of time without the frequent attention that a wood fire always requires. It is a more concentrated form of fuel requiring less space in the cellar than a corresponding amount of fireplace wood."

LOWER MERION RECORD IS SMASHED BY WILMINGTON

der of the second quarter and the Merion team once more rallied and marched up to Wilmington's goal only to miss out by a fumble at the critical point when breaks were needed. Wilmington punted safely out of danger and the half ended with Wilmington leading by one point.

The second half was one against the home team, practically all the breaks going to Wilmington. In the third period the Adamites once more came within scoring distance only to lose the ball through a fumble, and from then on Wilmington started to hold on the ball, using as much time as possible to keep the Merion men at a disadvantage or from having opportunity to score. Towards the end of the third period Wilmington began her only offensive drive by use of the air. It succeeded in making four first downs, but was held dead on the five-yard line and lost the ball on downs.

The Merion men drove Wilmington from their five-yard mark to the 40-yard mark and tried opening an aerial attack only to have it blocked by Wilmington's defense. The game ended with the ball in Lower Merion's hands, but not near enough to score.

The Lower Merion line throughout the tussle played a great game on defense but lacked ability to put through an offensive drive. The backfield seemed weak in breaking up Wilmington's aerial attack. A little practice plus fight and grit ought to remedy these faults and a different game ought to be seen when Lower Merion plays West Chester Saturday afternoon at home.

West Chester has won two and lost two, but has a formidable array to present against the home team. The score of last year's West Chester game was 16 to 6 in favor of the Ardmore men, but by no means was the West Chester combination of last year an easy nut to crack.

7.45 P. M.—Evening meeting.

A service of inspiring song with a short address by pastor. A real delightful time. Come.

Baptist Church of the Evangel.

Robert E. Keighton, minister.

Sunday, October 25:

9.45 A. M.—Church School.

11 A. M.—Morning worship. Sermon "The Master Key." Children's sermonette "The Most Useful Thing in the World."

7 P. M.—Young People's Society.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship. The evening service will be entirely in the charge of our young people. They have planned an unusually interesting service. Miss Charlotte Hillegas will speak upon the topic "Three Things the Young People Can Do for Their Church," and Mr. Herbert McCarter speak upon the topic "Three Things the Church Can Do for Its Young People."

Wednesday, October 28:

6.30 P. M.—Church Family Dinner.

8 P. M.—Church Forum. We are glad to introduce to our church forum Mrs. Joseph Wilds, who will give an impersonation of Miss Krause, of Alaska.

Thursday, October 29:

8 P. M.—Men's Association. Our special speaker of the evening is the Rev. Carl Agee, the successful pastor of the First Christian Church in Philadelphia. We are expecting him to tell it is necessary to reserve a place if one wishes to attend his Men's Association.

Friday, October 30:

8 P. M.—Annual meeting of the Church School Teachers' Association at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Boardman Hopper in Merion.

Look for our special announcement of the musical service next Sunday evening. Our guest soloist is a member of the Civic Opera Company.

The Presbyterian Church.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister.

Meetings for October 25:

9.30 A. M., Bible School. Everybody welcome.

11 A. M., Morning Worship. Sermon theme: "Depths and Shallows."

7 P. M., Senior and Intermediate Endeavor meetings. Eighty-five were present last Sunday.

7.45 P. M., Evening Worship. Sermon theme, "Let No Man Take Thy Crown."

At the Prayer Meeting next Wednesday evening each one present is requested to recite a favorite verse of Scripture. This should be a worthwhile meeting and all are urged to be present.

The many friends in this church of the popular editor of "Our Town" wish to congratulate him upon the high adventure upon which he has so recently embarked and to extend to him and Mrs. Living their very best wishes for the future.

BOOK REVIEWS

Of the long list of books added to the Narberth Community Library this month the following four books of fiction have been chosen for special mention.

"The Crystal Cup," by Gertrude Atherton, pictures the young girl of today in all her independence and individuality. Gita Carteret is the daughter of unhappily married parents. The father, belonging to a family of social standing and means, elects to lead the useless life of wine, women and song. The young girl, Gita, brought up in this atmosphere, becomes a man-hater and at the same time ashamed of her own sex. She tries cutting her hair short, she tries dressing like a man and even tries an unusual experiment with marriage. The ending appears happy, and the reader will certainly wish Gita Carteret peace in the future she has chosen.

"Samuel Drummond," by Thomas Boyd, will make a strong appeal to all patriotic Americans. Mr. Boyd has written a story about the home of a settler in Ohio when that State was "out West." Samuel Drummond and Marthy Jane marry and on their honeymoon ride on a train! What a big event that is for them. On their return they settle on their own farm of some 200 acres and life begins. No electric stoves, washers or cleaners for Marthy Jane, and neither help nor machinery for Samuel. But fields must be planted and food and clothes provided for the growing family. Still they keep their love for each other in spite of many troubles, and in the end go hand in hand to a little house to end their days.

"The Polyglots," by William Gerhardt, is the story of the life of a much mixed family after the war ended and left them living in Manchuria. Aunt Teresa, of the indomitable will, is the family leader. Born in England, she was adopted by a Russian while her father was in business in Siberia. Married to a Belgian, she lived in his country till the war broke out, and feeling that Europe was no place for her while there was fighting going on, she took her daughter and soldier husband and hurried to Japan. The story deals with the people she gathers around her and how, through affecting illness and playing upon people's sympathies, she gains her own way. And finally the tale ends with Aunt Teresa and her large family of connections on a ship bound for England, where she hopes to gain still more comfort for herself.

"Breadgivers" is a dramatic story of New York's East Side. Anzia Yezierska, the author, has painted a vivid word picture of Hester street with its crowded tenements and its great mass of immigrants as they struggle to exist in the turmoil of America life. In the Smolinsky family is one daughter, Sara, who wants with all her heart and soul to become a teacher in the public schools. In contrast to her is her father, an old man who cannot adopt the ways of America and to whom the freedom of women in this land is nothing short of evil. The story makes one ache with pity over their barren lives, but Sara's fight to climb from Hester street to college is the making of a good American.

WORLD'S LARGEST

Motion Picture House Organ Installed at Ardmore Theatre.

What is claimed to be the world's largest motion picture theatre organ has been installed by the Ardmore Theatre. It was designed and installed by the theatre's own staff, and took three years to plan and perfect.

The organ is the only one of its kind having a five-manual console with 232 stops, as each individual unit is termed. S. H. Barrington designed the instrument. He was assisted by Horace Hustler.

Arrangements have been made to broadcast music from the organ through WABQ, the Haverford College radio station. This station is operated by the Radio Club of the college. Programs will begin shortly, and will be given once a week.
